

Defending Your Good Name

HIGHLIGHTING ATTPRO DEFENSE COUNSEL

As an AttPro insured you can feel confident knowing that if a disciplinary action or a legal malpractice claim is filed against you that you have a team of seasoned experts by your side.

Wicker Smith was formed in 1952 and has a depth of experience in defending legal malpractice cases. The Miami office represents and defends lawyers and law firms in all types of legal malpractice claims, ranging from Fair Debt Collection Practice Act cases, ineffective assistance of counsel, breach of fiduciary duty and failing to act in accordance with the clients' desires. The legal malpractice team in Wicker Smith's Miami office has defended attorneys at both the trial and appellate level.

Erik Crep is a partner at Wicker Smith in the firm's Miami office. He earned his Bachelors degree from Columbia University in 1999 and his Juris Doctor degree from University of Miami in 2004.

Erik's legal practice includes defending a variety of professionals, such as attorneys, insurance agents/brokers, doctors, home inspectors and real estate agents. He has defended attorneys in a wide variety of legal malpractice actions involving subjects as diverse as personal injury, commercial transactions, trusts and estates, real property and debt collection. Erik is AV Preeminent Rated and is active in the Professional Liability Defense Federation (PLDF).

He was on the Board of Directors from 2012-2016, which included serving as the organization's Treasurer (2012-14) and Vice President (2014-16).
